

See for yourself what the Web 2.0 buzz is all about. Aside from being highly interactive, accessible and collaborative—it's a fun use of technology! The sites below are featured in the videos available at discoveryeducation.com/web2.0. GO EXPLORE!

Introduction : Get started by watching our “Introduction to Web 2.0” and then Go Explore the sites below!

Wordle.net

GoAnimate.com

SecretBuilders.com

Image Tools: Use social photo sharing sites to inject creativity into instruction through photography.

Flickr.com

Picnik.com

CreativeCommons.org

BigHugeLabs.com

Presentation Tools: Create and share presentation slides anytime, anywhere.

Slideshare.net

280Slides.com

Prezi.com

Mobile Tools: Think cell phones are for making calls, texting and taking pictures? Think again.

PollEverywhere.com

Drop.io

Phone.io

Jott.com

Video Tools: Learn more enhanced video integration in the classroom.

Animoto.com

Animoto.com/Education

Gizmoz.com

XtraNormal.com

Community Tools: Easy to use collaboration tools to make working together much less work—and way more engaging.

Edmodo.com

Docs.Google.com

Wikispaces.com

PBWorks.com

Best of the Rest: Word art, digital collage, video posters and more. Bring school projects to life in a highly creative and collaborative way.

Wordle.net

Glogster.com

Glogster.com/edu

Voicethread.com